

A Powerful Message That Challenges, Entertains, and Educates

Imagine if you will.....that you are a war orphan in the country of South Korea and the year is 1952. Your world is one of hunger, desperation, and fear. The priority in your life each day is simply to survive. By fate, you are adopted by a couple from the United States who are involved in education. Learn about the life of Tom Webb through his entertaining, heart-wrenching, unforgettable message and impact of individuals on his life. Tom uses his diverse background to remind teachers of what the focus of their classrooms should be every day. Tom's wisdom, sense of humor, sensitivity, and passion will take teachers on a personal journey that will help them rethink the priorities with students.

What others have said about Tom:

"Tom, your performance is the first time that I've seen a speaker so thoroughly entertain, challenge and move the audience with such lavish amounts of well-targeted humor, tenderness, and respect."

Kelly Gillespie, Executive Director of Instructional Services, Southwest Plains Regional Service Center, Sublette, Kansas

Comments from teachers who attended Southwest Plains Regional Service Center Universal Inservice:

- Tom delivered an excellent message! Great food for thought as we begin a new school year.
- A wonderful speaker with an excellent message!
- Tom Webb was awesome! His message is straight at the heart and he was so sincere.
- I really enjoyed Mr. Webb! I have NEVER seen an audience so captivated by a speaker!
- I never expected to feel so many emotions during a keynote presentation. I laughed and cried, but in the end I was invigorated for the new school year.
